

Customer Service Champion

We are all committed to doing the best for our clients and acting in their best interests. But which firm goes above and beyond? Who can demonstrate customer service excellence? Who has embedded a culture of “delighting” their customers? And who can provide an evidence-based assessment of what it means to their clients to go the extra mile?

Criteria

The winner of this award will:

- demonstrate how they have operated in the best interests of the client and the profession whilst managing expectations.
- show how they have embedded a culture of customer service excellence.
- demonstrate how they excel at dealing with service issues or complaints which may arise.
- provide examples or case studies of real-life situations where they have overcome obstacles to delight their clients.
